

Our Client is Europe's leading independent manufacturer of sealants, PU-Foams and adhesives. The Company has a strong brand all over the world. It serves professionals in construction, retail channels and industrial assembly and has over 50 years of experience with end-users in over 130 countries worldwide. With 19 manufacturing sites on 5 continents and 64 subsidiaries worldwide, our Client ensures optimal technical and logistical support.

The Company has a highly autonomous process division, building process installations for various kinds of end-products. The firm is constantly expanding its know-how and technical approach to other sites over the globe. At the moment we are looking for a highly motivated Candidate who will work in an international environment and will have important role in building leading chemical processes as:

Project Engineer

Pionki

Main responsibilities:

- Developing or reinstalling new or known processes in the Company's factories,
- Making sure that the processes are developed and implemented according to the Company's standards as well as to legal and safety requirements,
- Working closely with other departments and team members involved in order to efficiently implement new process solutions and optimize existing ones,
- Maintaining regular contact with the central Technical Department in the HQ.

Requirements:

- 3-4 years of experience in the area of process or industrial engineering within a manufacturing environment (chemical, cosmetics, food and beverage sectors will be a definite asset),
- Educational background in engineering,
- Experience in designing and implementing processes for handling raw materials, especially liquids and/or gases,
- Knowledge of relevant technology and technical solutions, like pumps, tanks, valves, mixers and equipment in the piping segment to control the level, flow, pressure, temperature etc.,
- Knowledge of the relevant industrial automation solutions and controlling equipment,
- Very good knowledge of English,
- Ability to adapt in international corporate structures,
- Readiness to acquire new knowledge and experience,
- Interpersonal skills and solution-oriented attitude,
- Mobility, international travelling will be an important part of the job.